Mr. Lee, a student of Stetson University, at DeLand, accompanied by a friend, came over Saturday evening to stay during the races, being guests at the Seaside Inn.

Dr. and Mrs. J. Lindahl, friends of Dr. and Mrs. A. J. Wessman, who have been guests for a time of Schmidt's Hotel, departed Saturday for their Chicago home. Dr. Lindahl is a noted botanist, and was much interested in the flora of this section. He is a widely traveled man, having visited the Mediterranean countries some time in the polar regions, and was last year in Mexico.

SEABREEZE, March 22.—It is understood that B. F. Martinsale has purchased what is known as the Jim Baggett storehouse, on Pinewood avenue, of B. F. Wells. The deal was made direct. As the peninsula towns grow this will be a fine location for a half-way grocery store.

The talk of bicycle and motorcycle racing on the beach has given great impetus to speeding among our boys and it is the commonest sight to see boys of ten or twelve years with bodies bent tearing down the street with the greatest expenditure of effort.

Col. A. F. Fleet and family had expected to leave for Culver, Ind., Friday but found, on applying for berths, that it was impossible to get them, and so have decided to remain until after the races.

The arithmetic class of the fifth grade have concluded a class contest, in which the two sides scored the same number of points. The losers were to stand treat for a moonlight marshmallow roast, but as the victory belongs to all the class have decided to join hands in celebrating on the beach when the moonlight returns.

A Way to Wealth.
Upon one occasion the late Earl Poullett, who, by the way, was a great spendthrift, was paying his physician and on handing the medical gentleman 400 guineas in gold asked him if he knew how to grow rich. The doctor replied in the negative, and the earl advised him never to pay an account by check, but always in coin. "For," he added, "the more you look at your money the less inclined you will be to part with it."

Doings at Daytona Beach

DAYTONA BEACH, March 23.—Mrs. Harriet Kocher and son, George, and Dr. Caroline L. Garlock, of Canajoharie, N. Y., who are stopping with Mrs. Catherine Ottman Garlock, of Daytona Beach, have just returned from a trip to Cuba and East Coast cities.

The San Souci Club will meet March 31st with Mrs. Jas. Haight, Peninsula Drive.

Mrs. T. Grotjan Ronald and wife, of Cocoa, will spend race week with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. A. Ronald.

William F. Ronald will also be over from Rollins College for a week or ten days to see the races.

Master Alston Dryer is developing fine talent for drawing. Miss Bardwell, his teacher, says Alston has ability quite beyond the average for line and color, and is proud of some of his productions, among them a Dutch scene with two Dutch figures. They were copied from a large picture and are wonderfully true to the Dutch type.

There will be a big cake walk at the Daytona Beach Hotel by the colored waiters tonight. It will be followed by a dance for the guests and visitors.

A Woman Soldier.
Eleonore Prochaska, born March 11, 1785, at Potsdam, was the daughter of a sergeant. After being brought up in the military orphanage of that town she became a cook in some citizen's house. When the great war against Napoleon broke out in 1813 she was led away by enthusiasm to quit her town secretly. By selling her poor belongings she procured male attire and weapons and enlisted under the name of August Rens in the Lutzow corps. On account of her tall, slender figure her sex was not discovered until she was mortally wounded. This happened in the encounter in the Gohrde forest, Regierungsbezirk, Luneburg, Kreis Dannenberg, Sept. 16, 1813. The Prussians were there attempting to storm a hill occupied by the French, she acting as a drummer. In 1803 a monument in memory of her was erected in the churchyard at Dannenberg and another in 1889 in the old churchyard of Potsdam.—London Sketch.

There is not a single moment in life that we can afford to lose.—Goulburn
